

Sinus Instrument Kit

Immediate sinus floor elevation with or without bone cover

Two different kind of instruments with blunt and sharp edges for dissecting mucosa on plane and rough internal surface of the maxillary sinus.

Flexible working ends (instruments are pre-bended for the normal enantral anatomy).

The Trinon Sinus Instrument Kit has been developed together with Dr. Stiller and is particularly suited for difficult maxillary sinus structure (septa, maxillary pillars, scarred mutations in change with intact maxillary sinus mucosa).

Sinus Instrument Kit acc. to Dr. Stiller consisting of:

Delicate working ends for most complicated situations during the operation, for example cicatrisation, situation after mouth-antrum connection, enantl dissection of maxillary sinus mucosa on the root surface and very thick facial maxillary sinus wall, dissection of distinctive costodiaphragmatic recess

Beneficial and reduced self-swinging behavior of the instruments despite the flexibility of the working ends

Working ends which do not glare on burnished edge, therefore it is possible to work atraumatic and ergonomically

Two mixing cups to collect autologous bone and to mix blood with bone replacement material

Special suction tubes for the maxillary sinus with perforations to avoid suction perforation; due to the delicate working ends it is possible to work accurately, also in difficult situations
